

2
(2nd April) last. They were married at Bromley Church, London. He was a saw dust and sand hawker. He hired a horse and van. After marriage he and his wife lived in Bow, London - in Campbell Road. In August they went to Wolverhampton. They returned to London in about a fortnight and lived in apartments 3 Spanby Road Bow. Ellen told me she gave the Prisoner money at different times, - that she bought a horse and van for him. She told me he pressed her for the money. I used to visit them. They seemed comfortable and happy. When we were alone she told me they were very unhappy - that he was very unkind to her. She was taken very ill in August and the Prisoner came to me on a Wednesday morning about six o'clock and said she wanted to see me. I went and found her in bed, very ill from his ill treatment at