

let some one else do his work while he staid in the public house.
She told me he had got all her money but a very few pounds.
On New Year's day between three and four afternoon she and Prisoner came to my house to see me. She had got my New Year's card. They seemed very friendly.
They remained an hour or an hour and half. I next saw her on Friday 18th January. She and the Prisoner called at my house then and told me they were going to Dundee. Prisoner began by telling me he had signed an Agreement with a fute firm in Dundee for seven years, for £3 a week. That he was to get £2, and his wife £1 if she liked the work. Shewn Agreement (Label 1). It is signed by Prisoner.
My sister's name is also written on it, but it is not her writing. She could not write much. Not so well as that. He said he was to begin work.
