

was not left handed.

At times the Prisoner was bad tempered - at others not. He was always pleasant to me. She (his wife, told me he was violent. She said he was cunning and concealed his temper before people. After his marriage I often saw him the worse of drink. My sister told me he was scarcely ever sober.

- Cross examined. My sister was out of service four years before her marriage. She lived at Oldford London East end in a room in a house. She was a needle woman and made waterproof cloaks and then she went to a jute factory in London (East end) About two years ago she went to live with a woman Elizabeth Haynes (List of Witnesses N^o 4) she had a room in Haynes' house. I know James Martin (List N^o 3). My sister used to visit him. A woman Kate Spooner lived with him. They keep a brothel. I have been