been in it. It was there the Prisoner first met my sister. I have seen him twice in her company there before their marriage - only times I saw them together. After marriage they took the ground floor of a house in East Spanby road and furnished it with my sister's money. I don't know Quicket Street. I never heard the name.

It was two or three weeks after her marriage that I first saw my sister - when she and her husband came to see me. I was not present at the marriage. My sister's money was in Union Bank shares. There were two ponies bought with my sister's money. I sometimes saw her in her house - sometimes often and sometimes seldom - not for a month or two at a time. I saw her oftener in my house than her own. She took the basket with jewellery home with her again. Before January she told me that he was always
