

19.

what dock he was leaving from.
He said "I will be back in the " evening and perhaps let you know.
" I dont want everybody to know what " dock I am leaving from" This was on the day before he sailed. The box was removed from my place by some one sent by man - same afternoon. Prisoner did not return.

4. Jane Guild, 58 Watson Street. Dundee Aged twenty seven, Stewardess in Cambria from London to Dundee
- leaving London Saturday (19th January) morning. Prisoner and woman, his wife were passengers - 2nd cabin. We reached Dundee on Sunday night. Passengers generally landed on arrival. Prisoner and his wife landed on Monday morning.
Wife told me that husband had got a situation in Dundee. Lieutenant Lamb took me to mortuary in February and I identified body.
cross-examined. There were four ladies