8. David Rattray Malcolm, Merchant
Netherlaw, Albany Terrace, Dundee Aged thirty nine. Partner of Malcolm Ogilvy & Co. I never saw Prisoner before. Shewn Agreement produced. It is a forgery if Malcolm Ogilvy & Co meant for us. There is no other firm of same name. We never advertise in London papers.
Only two ways occur to me in which Prisoner may have heard name of our firm. The one is that -

By the Court. In middle of January we bought some new works in Dundee and the fact was announced in some of the London papers and the Prisoner may have got our name in that way. The other is that there is a jute work in the east end of London and workmen go there from Dundee.
