

in the night between two and three (judging from state of fire) and heard a woman scream three times - in distress. I wakened Ann Johnston. I asked if she heard it. She said no. Screams quite close on each other. Window of my room looks into back green adjoining the Prisoner's Distance between windows twenty nine yards. Sound of screams came from that direction.

Cross-examined. A good many people live about in one room houses.

20. Ann Johnston, Millwarker, 101 Princes Street Dundee. Aged forty six. I am landlady of last witness. He wakened me between two and three in morning and asked if I had heard screams. I guessed time from the state of the fire. I heard no screams. I was asleep and Duncan woke me.

16. David Watson Walker, painter, 19 Crescent Lane /