

said the box with body would be found in his house 113 Princes Street one stair down. He said he had been stopping in the house occasionally since then. He said he could not get peace in his mind till he informed the police what had happened. Lieutenant Lamb was then in another room at police office, and I took Prisoner to him and repeated his story in his presence to Lamb. Prisoner was asked for and gave key of his house to Lamb.

22. David Lamb, Lieutenant of Police.

Confirms last witness as to Prisoner being brought to his room and what was said. The Prisoner said it was ten o'clock forenoon when he wakened and found Wife's dead body on floor. He said he gave the body one stab and then put it into a box. I got key and went to house about half past seven Sunday night. Found box and body in it in back room.
