Blood in veins remains fluid a long time.

Re-examined. All the signs of strangulation are very well marked in this case. It is in my opinion a typical case of homicidal strangulation. Eversion of wounds would disappear after a few days.

Declaration of Prisoner read and case for Crown closed.

Evidence for Prisoner

Statement for the Prisoner called—
The Revd Edward John Gough, Incumbent of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Dundee. I have seen Prisoner and his wife twice since they came to Dundee. They came to service in my church on Wednesday 24th or Thursday 25th January. I had previously received a letter from him from 23 Union Street and dated 23rd January asking
