if I could find him employment.
Reads letter. After service that evening I saw him and spoke to him. She was standing by his side. I advised them to apply for work at the docks. I saw them about ten days after on the Street in Union Street. She was a quite like person - not very animated and spoke very little.

Dr. David Lennox. M.D. In practice about ~~sixteen~~<sup>nine</sup> years. Large experience in post-mortem examinations.

I have seen several cases of attempted suicide by strangulation. In two cases the attempt was made with a cravat with a slip knot - one by a man and one by a woman. On 14th February I made examination of deceased's body along with Dr. Kinnear. We made a report in which we concurred.
