

Drowned off Beaumaris.—Mr. Hugh Owen, a well-known yachtsman, was drowned on Monday off Beaumaris by the upsetting of the punt in which he was rowing to his yacht near Puffin Island.

Ill-Luck at Monte Carlo.—The Duke de Dino, an Italian, who married an American heiress, has returned to Monte Carlo, and is again gambling heavily. He commenced his season's campaign on Saturday last by losing 250,000f. (£10,000).

Mr. James Monro, ex-Commissioner of Police, gratefully acknowledges £520 raised by members of the force "as a token of their kindly feelings towards me as their late chief," and announces that the money has been devoted to the maintenance of a bed at the Police Seaside Home for members of the Metropolitan Police. Mr. Monro has gone to India on an evangelising mission.

Adelina Patti and Ada Rehan Follow Passengers.—The Cunard steamer Etruria sailed from Liverpool last Saturday with Miss Ada Rehan and the members of Mr. Augustin Daly's company on board. Madame Patti was also a passenger as far as Queenstown. She sang at two concerts in Dublin on Monday night, and preferred to travel by the Etruria rather than risk a rough Channel voyage via Holyhead.
